Ent'd according to Act of Congress A.D. 1860 by Firth, Pond & C.º in the Clerks Office of the Dis't Court for the South'n Dis't of N.Y.

Mid Long Is-land s lovely daugh-ters Fair-est of all was Co-ra Dean
None could sigh where she was mov-ing Birds tuned their ca-rols to her call
Si-lent stars are nightly beam-ing Lending a sadness to the gloom

Soft her voice as li-quid mea-sure Heard when the stream-lets move
Fields grew fair-er at her com-ing Flowers a more joy-ful throng
While the winds of sum-mer dy-ing Borne from the deep dark wave

While her eyes of tender az-ure Glowed with the winning beams of love
Skies were bright where she was roam-ing Streams danced the light-er to her song
O'er the land in dir-ges sigh-ing Mur-mur with sor-row round her grave

AIR.

CHORUS.

Co - ra Dean has left the summer ro - ses Blooming o'er the lea

While her fair and gentle form re - po - ses Down by the calm blue sea.

While her fair and gentle form re - po - ses Down by the calm blue sea.
